

Compiled by Jane Curtis, MA – Caltech Health Educator – 395-2961
<http://www.healtheducation.caltech.edu>

LOCAL FARMER'S MARKETS

Fresh fruits and vegetables (organic also) breads and flowers are commonly found at certified farmer's markets. Visiting one is a chance to get off campus and support the local farmers. For additional locations and tips on 'what's in season', visit <http://www.farmernet.com>.

|                          |  |
|--------------------------|--|
| Alhambra                 | Sunday, 8:30am-1pmMonterey & E. Bay State Street                           |
| La Canada Flintridge     | Saturday, 8am-NoonBeulah Drive & Foothill Avenue                           |
| Los Angeles Chinatown    | Thursday, 4-8pm727 N. Hill Street (between Alpine & Ord)                   |
| Monrovia                 | Friday, 5-9pmEast Olive Avenue & South Myrtle Avenue                       |
| Pasadena Farmer's Market | Saturday, 8am-1pmPasadena High School/Victory Park                         |
| South Pasadena           | Thursday, 4-7pmMeridian Avenue & Mission Street                            |
| Produce Options          | Farm Fresh Ranch Market475 E. Orange Grove Blvd., Pasadena626-577-0343 |
|                          | Lake Produce752 N. Lake Avenue, Pasadena626-794-7531                   |
|                          | Trader Joe's345 S. Lake Avenue, Pasadena626-395-9553                   |
|                          | Wild Oats (organic)603 S. Lake Avenue, Pasadena626-792-1778            |